Discover Artstetten Castle:

A JOURNEY INTO THE HEART OF HISTORY

Just a few kilometers from Vienna, Artstetten Castle stands proudly with its seven white towers, offering a fascinating dive into the history of the Habsburg family. A former imperial summer residence, this emblematic site now houses a museum dedicated to Archduke Franz Ferdinand, whose assassination in Sarajevo in 1914 triggered the First World War.

Visitors can discover personal belongings, historical documents, and captivating testimonies about this momentous event. You can also visit the family crypt, where Archduke Franz Ferdinand and his wife Sophie rest – a place steeped in history and emotion.

The castle's unique atmosphere is enhanced by its lush park, which offers a breathtaking view of the Danube Valley, near the Wachau.

Still inhabited by descendants, Artstetten Castle combines history, culture, and nature for an unforgettable visit. It's a must-see for all history and architecture enthusiasts.

Don't miss a visit on your next trip to Austria!
